In the Community

The entire Quest organization takes great pride in playing an active role in the local community. During the Christmas season, multiple underprivileged families are supported. Quest works with the Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS), local schools, and churches to find needy local families and foster homes. The company as a whole then contributes to the effort of making the sponsored family's Christmas season a special one. Gifts are brought in and wrapped in the weeks leading up to Christmas, and much of the staff takes part in delivering the presents to the respective families.
